

When God doesn't make sense...

When it seems as if our God doesn't care.

When it seems God has forgotten but I assure you He is there.

When God seems not to be found up down, or left or right.

Just remember God is with you in day and in the night.

When sadness seems to overwhelm.

You're on the ship but God is not in the helm.

Its like the footprints in the sand.

You think you are sinking but God puts you on dry land.

You see only one set of prints but God is carrying you.

God is the victor and He will get you through.

When the light fails and the tempest does arise.

Satan attacks with nothing but lies.

God is love and He will not fail.

Though life hits you with its challenges and your train derailed.

Understand God is with you even in the night.

Though your boat may wander till land is out of sight.

And as we near the books final end.

We know God already won and Jesus is your friend.

So, when the night is gloom and doom.

Know that Satan is confined to an everlasting tomb.

Just give a shout to that Jericho wall.

It shall not stand and all your giants will soon fall.

As for our Savior Jesus all Him it cost.

God guides us all home because He sent His son to gather up the lost.

Amen... Written by: Dale Lee Gordon October 6th, 2017